DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/28/2009 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1, 5-19, 23-38, and 42-56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The Examiner was unable to find support in the originally-filed application for the amended claim limitation of monitoring the therapy "while the output of the sensor was monitored." Although the portions of the disclosure cited by Applicant (e.g., par. 0035) appear to support defining an event (e.g., running) and monitoring therapy delivered by the device during the event and/or during the "learning mode," the Examiner was unable to find support for monitoring therapy while defining the event (i.e., monitoring the sensor). For instance, the patient could begin the "event" (e.g., running) or initiate the learning mode; then the "event" is defined based on monitoring the sensor; and subsequently the therapy is monitored by the device (as shown in Applicant's Figures 5 and 6). These figures lack, and the corresponding text is also deficient in describing, an embodiment wherein the "initially defining" step occurs while "monitoring therapy" (i.e., performed in parallel). Just because these two acts are disclosed as occurring during the "learning mode," does not mean that one occurs "while" the other occurs because both could occur in the learning mode (or while the patient is running), but at different times. This appears to be an unsupported range of when the "monitoring therapy" and "monitoring the sensor" steps occur. Should these limitations be removed from the claims, the previous rejections of record will be applied.
